

Local Athletes Run for Project Hope

Posted by Melanie Graham

A group of 20 local runners have come together and formed the first ever Project Hope team for the Boston Marathon. The group trained in Newton over the weekend decked out in Valentine's Day gear and wearing hearts with pictures of women who have successfully been through Project Hope.

Project Hope is a Boston-based organization that helps low-income women find jobs, housing and education opportunities.

The Project Hope team consists of Scott Kaplan of Needham, Ron Golub of Newton, Seana Gaherin, owner of Dunn Gaherin's restaurant in Newton, Tom Coleman of Newton, Marc Caminetsky of Newton, Norman Lang of Chestnut Hill, Bob Gifford of Brookline, Richard Snyder of Brookline, Mimi Golub of Newton, Jennifer Davis of Needham, Glen Hartford of Andover, Heather Caminetsky of Newton and Marc Pollina of Boston.

You can donate to Project Hope here.